All those indebted to the said Estate, are desired to pay it same, and those who have any Demands, to give in attests Accounts by said Day.

A Young Negro MAN, who understands some thing of the Cooper's Business, and Three young WENCHES, to be hired out together, for the Field. Enquire at Timothy's Printing-Office on the Bay, near the Exchange, or at his House the upper End of Broad-street.

VERY alarming Accounts have been received since our last, by Express, from Savannah, Augusta, &c. of recent Murders, committed by Creek Indians, in the Colony of Georgia (of which Augusta may now be said to be the Frontier) but they are mostly so vague and uncertain, that we shall give our Readers such only as are most credited, viz.

That, since the Murder of the whole Family of one White (Six in Number) on the 25th of December last, at Oglethorpe, a Party of Indians, said to be fifteen, made an Attack, on the 14th Instant, at 9 o'Clock in the Morning, upon an unfinished Stockade-Fort, that was building by three of the Name of Sherrol, near Williams's Creek, and at no great Distance from White's; that the Indians killed 7 and wounded 4 of the Sherrol's Party; but the House being bravely defended, by two Lads and a Negro, till 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon, when one of the Assailants (supposed to be their Leader) fell, they immediately went off, without completing the Destruction intended, or even carrying away their own Dead, 4 in Number. And,

That on the 23d Instant, the same or another Party of Indians attacked, defeated, and put to Flight, a Party of Georgia Rangers and Militia, who were sent to the Relief of the distressed Inhabitants about Williams's Creek; and on the 26th killing Lieut. Daniel Grant, a brave and worthy Man, and two others, and wounding two more, one of them mortally.

These Hostilities have given Rise to a great Variety of Conjectures. Some believe, that it is only the first Operation of a general Confederacy between all the Indian Nations, in both Departments of North-America, to expell the white Inhabitants from all the Hunting Grounds they have lately been brought to cede, being jealous of further Encroachments—Others, that the Confederacy is confined to the Creeks and Choctaws.—Others, that no Indians have hostile Intentions besides the Creeks; who being supposed in general dissatisfied at the late Dismemberment of their Country, to enlarge the Territory of Georgia, will not suffer the late ceded Lands to be settled according to his Excellency Sir James Wright's Plan.—And others, that the Defection is only amongst the Indians of the Lower (commonly called the Mother) Towns, or the Coweta's, one of them; and that they will not be supported by the Rest of the Nation.

Be it as it may—it is certain, that the whole Western Frontier of Georgia has been thrown into the utmost Consternation, and is abandoning fast; and that the Inhabitants of our own Back Settlements are not a little alarmed. In short, this Event is of so serious and important a Nature, that the Hon. John Stuart, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Southern District, thought proper to send an Express from Savannah last Week, countermanding the Departure of his Deputy for the Two Florida's, Charles Stuart, Esq; just as he had embarked for England.

As there seems now to be much Work cut out for the Southern Superintendency, it may not be amiss here to give a correct List of the Officers in that Department, especially as there was an Error in that formerly published.

The Hon. John Stuart, Superintendent, &c.
Charles Stuart, Esq; Deputy for the Two Florida's.
Alexander Cameron, Esq; Deputy for the Choctaws.
John Thomas, Esq; Deputy for the small Tribes, on the Mississippi, and the Lakes Maurepas and Pontchartrain.
John McIntosh, Esq; Commissary for the Chickasaws and Choctaws.

David Taitt, Esq; Commissary for the Creeks.
There being an absolute Necessity for filling up the Bench of Judges, on which a Vacancy had lately happened by the Death of the Hon. John Murray, and the Office not being worth the Acceptance of any Gentleman at the Bar, who would be under a Necessity of quitting his Practice, and subject to be superseded from England, the Hon. William-Henry Drayton on Tuesday last accepted that Appointment, from His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, till there be another by His Majesty.

On Monday last arrived here from New-York, Mr. Robert Haliday, another Son to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs. The same Day died, very suddenly, Mr. Samuel Cardy, the ingenious Architect who undertook and completed the Building of St. Michael's Church in this Town, and the Beacon or Light-House on Middle-Island, near the Bar.

On Thursday Mr. William Somersell, Merchant, was married to Mrs. Sarah Croftswate, Widow of Mr. William Ward Croftswate.

Yesterday Mr. James Neilson, Merchant, was married to the amiable Miss Hester Singletary.
